

Communication, Language, and Literacy Activity for 6 to 12 Months

Where's Your Toe?

This is a wonderful game to teach a baby about body parts and establish a loving bond between adult and baby.

Material:

- None

What to do:

1. Sit the baby in your lap and say the following:

*Where's your toe?
Here it is. (Touch his toe and kiss it.)
I love your toe
Very much.*

*Where's your nose?
Here it is. (Touch his nose and kiss it.)
I love your nose
Very much.*

2. Continue the game, naming different body parts.
