

BOOK TITLE: The Invisible Moose
AUTHOR: Dennis Haseley
ILLUSTRATOR: Steven Kellogg

SUMMARY OF BOOK: This book is about the love of a male moose for a female moose. The male moose thinks the female moose doesn't even see him. He feels like he is invisible. The female moose gets captured, and the male moose travels great distances to find her. He finds her in New York City, goes to a professor, and gets a potion to become invisible. They both become invisible and fall in love.

BEFORE READING (Ask questions and use what the child already knows to add to the discussion, assisting the child in understanding and enjoying the book):

Try questions such as these:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Talk about the cover of the book and the title. Ask your child what he/she thinks the book is about. 2. What does it mean to be invisible? Can | a person – or a moose – really be invisible? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3. Take a “picture walk” through the book and talk about the illustrations before reading the book. |
|--|---|

DURING READING (ask these questions):

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have you ever helped someone who was in trouble? 2. Have you ever been in trouble and has | someone helped you? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3. Do you think there is a magic potion to make you invisible? |
|---|---|

AFTER READING (activity to extend book experience):

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Help your child to dramatize the book. See if the child can remember the sequence of events as they happened in the book. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Give your child crayons and paper and let him/her write and illustrate a story about a child or animal who gets in trouble and someone helps out. |
|--|--|

Compliments of:

* This activity created by students at The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga and used by permission of the United Way of Greater Chattanooga.

