Job Summary

Best Beginnings is seeking enthusiastic, collaborative teaching assistants for part-time seasonal independent contract work for our 2023 kindergarten readiness summer day camp program. Contractors will teach kindergarten readiness skills in a play-based, summer day camp classroom setting to prepare children with limited preschool experience for kindergarten. Our program is based on curriculum aligned with the Alaska Early Learning Guidelines, with specific emphasis on development of early literacy, social-emotional skills, fine motor control, and personal growth.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Contribute to a positive, nurturing environment for learning and play for students and their families.
- Assist a classroom's lead teacher by guiding students through planned activities, in accordance with daily lesson plans developed by Best Beginnings with provided materials.
- Help supervise a classroom of no more than 15 students, ranging in age from 4 – 6 years old, both indoors and outdoors, in collaboration with the assigned classroom Lead Teacher.
- Prepare daily snacks and assist with classroom cleaning duties.
- In the event of an emergency or unplanned absence, fill in for the Lead Teacher with additional support from the on-site coordinator.

Experience and Qualifications

- Minimum education level required – high school diploma.
- Prior experience working with children and diverse populations.
- Early childhood education experience or training and/or teaching credentials preferred.
- Must be able to pass a background check.
- Must have a reliable method of transportation to and from school.

Expectations

- Available for classroom instruction 9:30 AM – 2:30 PM Monday through Thursday from July 5 to July 27.
- Attend a pre-program orientation on Wednesday, June 28th and Thursday, June 30 from 9:30 AM – 4 PM, and end-of-camp celebration activities on July 27th from 2 – 5 PM.

- Ability to collaborate with a team to include an on-site coordinator, fellow lead teachers, and classroom teaching assistants as needed.
- Must be dependable and punctual.
- Must display professionalism and integrity.

Compensation

- The stipend for this contract is $2,000.
